About me

I'm a tech-savvy enthusiastic English teacher. I'm seeking new opportunities in the Busan region, ideally teaching children English through the means of project based activities.

LANGUAGE SKILLS

I am a fluent English and French speaker. I have an intermediate level of Spanish and Italian.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Busan Global Village – Busan, Korea – English instructor – August 2019 to Present

As an English instructor at BGV, I have worked across a breadth of programs teaching students across a variety of levels and ages. Highlights of my successes at BGV include :

- Taught students in the YL, IEC, REG and SSP programs.
- I put together an educational program (the BGV travel tour) which utilized mixed learning methods and which was selected by the Busan Board of Education and BGV as a program which is now being taught in public schools across the Busan metropolitan area.
- I filmed and edited dozens of videos which were used as part of BGV's marketing online strategy
- I updated the BGV report card process by automating parts of it, saving cumulatively several hours of work for teachers.

Digijeunes, Toulouse, FR – Teacher in English & Informatics – April 2015 to July 2019

Digijeunes creates educational tools and training experience on behalf of the European commission. These tools aim to promote ICT skills amongst youths and young adults. My tasks at Digijeunes included:

- Put together research projects and successfully obtained funding from the European Union education ministry.
- Created and taught informatics related classes in English on topics ranging from: AI, VR, AR, E-Textiles, Digital Fabrication, programming and media.

The Walk Disney Company, London, UK – Advertising Specialist – March 2014 to March 2015

I worked in the YouTube specialist team of the Walt Disney Company collaborating with several famous YouTubers in helping put together a comprehensive YouTube content and promotion strategy.

iProspect (part of Dentsu-Aegis), London, UK – Advertising Video Executive – January 2013 to February 2014

As a video executive I worked directly with some of the world's biggest brands such as 20th Century Fox, Kellogg's, Santander and the UK Government by helping them put together a comprehensive marketing strategy with an emphasis on YouTube content.
